Coimbra, Paulo

Paulo began working for OWASP in July 2007 assuming the Spring of Code closing process. In the beginning of 2008, he became an OWASP part-time employee assuming the role of Project Manager. After completing his IELTS course, his status changed again in July 2008 when he moved into a full-time position. Paulo answers directly to the OWASP Board and has been working closely with the OWASP Global Projects Committee since it was organized in November 2008.

A few of Paulo's OWASP contributions are as follows:

- OWASP Spring of Code 2007,
- OWASP Summer of Code 2008,
- OWASP EU Summit 2008,
- OWASP Assessment Criteria 1.0 & 2.0,
- OWASP 'Project About' Templates,
- OWASP Projects Dashboard,
- OWASP Project Reviewers Database,
- OWASP Training.

Paulo Coimbra has a M.S. in Management (Technical University of Lisbon), a Post-Graduation in Political Science (University of Lisbon), and a B.S. in Management and Social Development (Portuguese Catholic University). Paulo has worked in management since 1992. He has performed different roles, from Economist (IAPMEI/Portuguese Ministry of Economy) to Teacher of Finances, Accountancy and M&A (Polytechnic Institutes of Setúbal and Santarém), to Marketing Director and Teacher of Project Finance, Corporate Communication and Political Science (Piaget Institute).

Fort, Julio Cesar

My name is Julio Cesar Fort, 24, yet another guy living in Recife, Pernambuco, a very beautiful state located in northeast of Brazil. Currently I am an undergraduate student of Computer Engineering at CIn/UFPE (Pernambuco Federal University) and former undergraduate student in Mechanics Engineering at the same university. I was a scholarship holder of CNPq and acted as intern at C.E.S.A.R. learning secure coding techniques in C. I worked, also as intern, in coadmin team at Tempest Technologies, a very nice market-leading company Brazilian information security industry.

Hartmann, Kate

Operations Director at OWASP

Lauritão, Rogério Paulo Vicente

Loureiro, Nuno

Nuno has a MSc in Information Technology - Information Security from Carnegie Mellon University and currently works for SAPO where he's leading the Security Team. Besides his passion for Security and Web Security, he loves hiking and traveling.

Mendo, Tiago

I've worked in the security area for a few years, mostly in network security doing traffic analysis and network reverse engineering. I'm a member of the Portuguese Honeynet Project and I'm currently working for SAPO, which is the most visited site in Portugal, in the Web Security team.

Paiva, Sandra

I have assumed, in October 2010, the position of OWASP Training Manager and will be responsible for managing the OWASP 'Chapter-lead' Training activities and operationalising the concept of 'OWASP Academies'. Throughout this process, I will be managed by Dinis Cruz and report directly to the OWASP Board. I was, up to the end of July 2010, Head of Customer Relationship Management (CRM) for Europe, Middle East and Africa at the Mergermarket Group (part of the Financial Times Group), having joined the company in July 2007 as a CRM Executive. I have a graduate degree in Statistics and Management of Information and a post-graduate degree in the same area. Before joining Mergermarket, I worked for two years at Dealogic on the Mergers & Acquisitions and Loan Markets products.

Prior to moving to London in 2004, I have worked in several universities in Portugal where I firstly, for roundly half a dozen of years, taught Maths and Statistics and thereafter, throughout an academic year, worked in the conceptualization, development and production of materials to support academic and scientific events and in the creation of methodologies to repackage contents and support academic and scientific activity.

Pegorelli, Marta

Potjes, Linda

Linda, from the Netherlands, is a Java Programmer in daily life. Living with an active OWASP member, she's been visiting a lot of conferences, slowly getting more and more interested in security. This week, she's on the support team for the OWASP summit, helping out with whatever needs to be done.

Wuensch, Stefan

Starting as soon as he could grip a screwdriver, Stefan spent his formative years hacking and tinkering with anything run by electricity. Later Stefan joined the Boston-area hacker group L0pht, and was a member for five years. In 1998 Stefan and the other L0pht members testified before the United States Senate as part of a series of hearings on "Weak Computer Security in Government: Is the Public at Risk?" For the past 13 years Stefan has been working at Harvard University where he has been involved with security, high-performance research computing, networking, and systems infrastructure. His current role is Senior UNIX Engineer.
